

DRINA RENDIC

CURRENT CIVIC ACTIVITIES

- La Moneda Presidential Palace Cultural Center - Vice President, since 2009
- Chile Transparente (Chilean Chapter of Transparency International) - Vice President, since 2010
- Advisor of David Rockefeller Center of Latin American Studies at Harvard University since 2011
- Advisor of “Great Corporate Debate Committee” of the Chilean American Chamber of Commerce (AMCHAM) since 2008
- Member of El Mercurio Newspaper “Advisory Committee 2012” Artes y Letras Cultural Section
- Member of Chile-Pacific Foundation which promotes trade and cultural interaction in the Pacific Basin, since 2011
- Member of the Foreign Relations Committee of Instituto Libertad “think tank” since 2011
- Member of Friends of the following Chilean and U.S. Cultural Organizations:
 - Museo de Arte Contemporáneo (Museum of Contemporary Art)
 - Corporación del Patrimonio (Chilean Heritage Foundation)
 - Teatro Municipal de Santiago (National Theatre of Opera and Ballet)
 - Teatro del Lago (Frutillar Theater for the Performing Arts)
 - Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, MA
 - Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, Boston, MA
 - The Metropolitan Museum of Art, NYC
 - The Metropolitan Opera, NYC

RECENT PAST ACTIVITIES

- Member of the Board of Chile's National Council for Arts and Culture (appointed by the President of Chile and ratified by the Senate) from January 2004 to January 2012
- Executive Vice President of Lo Barnechea Municipality Cultural Organization (COBA) from April 1995 to April 2010:
 - Founded and Sustained two Youth Orchestras in the Municipality
 - Developed National Debate Program involving all Chilean Universities (sponsored by Oregon-based Chiles Foundation)
 - Active in leading many other cultural endeavors in the Municipality
- Member of the Board of FOJI Fundación de Orquestas Juveniles e Infantiles de Chile (National Foundation of Youth and Children Orchestras of Chile) from 2002 to 2004
- Member of the Board of Museo Interactivo Mirador (Scientific and Technological Educational Center) by Presidential appointment, from 2000 to 2004
- Member of the Board of Instituto Chileno Norteamericano (Chilean-American Institute) from 2005 to 2009

EDUCATION

Harvard University, Candidate for Masters Degree in International Relations

BBA from University of Portland, Oregon, United States

PERSONAL

Married, has three children and currently resides in Santiago, Chile. Lived in the United States and Puerto Rico for twenty years.

During the past thirty years, she has been active in pro bono work for international causes related to culture and transparency.

Email address: drina.rendic@gmail.com